She has won many regional and national competitions, titles, and scholarships. At the age of 16, she performed with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra as a featured performer.

During that time, Lauren started teaching and choreographing for numerous studios throughout the state of Maryland. After graduating high school, Lauren joined Cirque Productions, an internationally recognized performing arts company. For the past 6 years, she has toured all over North America as a dancer and as an aerialist. She studies aerial arts such as lyra, silks, straps, and hula hoops. In the summer of 2008, Lauren performed on Broadway in "Cirque Dreams Jungle Fantasy" at the Broadway Theatre. Most recently, sailing throughout Europe and to the Eastern and Western Caribbean, Lauren performed in the "Cirque Dreams & Dinner" show aboard Norwegian Cruise Line's EPIC. With a youthful approach, Lauren looks forward to sharing her passion for dance with students of all ages.
